Renascence: A Book Of Verse

Walter Crane is better known as an artist and illustrator of children's books. His illustrations defined a whole genre which influenced the field for many years. He was also involved in various socialist causes and leant his artistic talent to many left-leaning publications. Some of the sentiments can be found reflected in this volume of his own poetry. The first section contains poems published for the first time, while the second section contains many verses that appeared in other publications and books. ~ Summary by Larry Wilson
